Integrated Care Systems/Integration

NHS England, Health and justice framework for integrations 2022-2025: Improving lives – reducing inequality, “This framework sets out the direction of travel and national priorities which will inform the development of integrated health and justice services across England.”

NHS England, Delivering a quality public health function in integrated care boards, “This checklist is provided by the NHS National Public Health team to support ICBs in providing a quality public health function across the ICS.”

Primary Care Network, Primary care networks: three years on, “This report considers the progress of primary care networks (PCNs) since their establishment in July 2019, taking stock of the challenges they have faced as well as their successes.”

Workforce/Leadership

NHS England, Combatting racial discrimination against minority ethnic nurses, midwives and nursing associates, “This document provides practical examples of how nursing and midwifery professionals can recognise and challenge racial discrimination, harassment, and abuse. It also highlights other useful resources and training materials that will support professionals to care with confidence.”

DEMOS, Understanding ‘early exiters’: the case for a healthy ageing workforce strategy, “This report identified four broad objectives which should shape a healthy ageing workforce strategy in order to reduce the number of ‘Early Exiters’. The key recommendations section summarises the recommendations supporting each objective.”

Population Health

The King’s Fund, Place-based partnerships explained, “Place-based partnerships are collaborative arrangements between organisations responsible for arranging and delivering health and care services and others with a role in improving health and wellbeing. They are a key building block of the integrated care systems (ICSs) recently established across England and play an important role in co-ordinating local services and driving improvements in population health.”

Age UK, Why can’t I get care?: Older people’s experiences of care and support, “‘Why can’t I get care?’ is a question Age UK get asked a lot. This short report aims to explain the answer, drawing on older people’s experiences, as well as on what they know about how the social care system is supposed to work, and how it actually works in cash-strapped 2022.”

The King’s Fund, Joining the dots for population health, “Population health is one of the top priorities for integrated care systems, the NHS and The King’s Fund, at a global level and increasingly for anyone in health and care who recognises that many of the current challenges facing the health and care system in England are often linked to the lack of earlier and more concerted focus on population health.”

NHS Performance/NHS Finance

The Health Foundation, Why have ambulance waiting times been getting worse?, “Ambulance services in England are under immense pressure. This Health Foundation analysis looks at ambulance service performance and explores the contributing factors and priorities for improvement.”

Department of Health and Social Care, Health and Care Act 2022: combined impact assessments, “The Health and Care Act received Royal Assent on 28 April 2022. These documents are an assessment of the impact on the Health and Care Act 2022.”

HSJ, What to expect from the spending review, Podcast, “This week Annabelle and Dave are joined by Miriam Deakin, director of policy and strategy at NHS Providers, and they discuss what could be in store for the NHS in next week’s spending review.”

Equality and Equity

BMA, Sexual orientation and gender identity in the medical profession, “The first part of the report looks at individual experiences of phobia and discrimination and their impact on professional and personal wellbeing. It also looks at the extent to which people are reporting phobia and discrimination they experience or witness, and the consequences they face for doing so. The second part of the report looks at broader systemic factors that contribute to supportive and inclusive environments and how inclusive of diverse sexual orientations and gender identities people perceive their work and study environments to be. The third part of the report sets out areas where respondents feel that further action is needed to ensure an inclusive medical profession free from discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation or gender identity.”
